7.3.1 ; Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 1000 words

Title: KSCST(Student Projects Programme)

Ignite Your Curiosity.....

The institution is committed to transform today's young learning minds as tomorrow's inventors, where students were provided an opportunity to participate in KSCST projects every year which contributes in development of the cities and states.

Our students were actively participating in KSCST projects that can address real world problems which showcasing our students achievements and contributions to various fields of Business, science, technology.

Objectives of the Practice:

The primary objective of engaging in KSCST projects are;

1. To enhance students technical and analytical skills through challenging projects.
2. To provide opportunities to our students in applying theoretical knowledge on practical problems.
3. To identify and develop better solutions to create positive impact on society.
4. To promote culture of research and innovation among students

The Context

Students of our institution participate in KSCST (Karnataka State Council for Science and Technology) projects which are significant initiative aimed at fostering innovation and research. KSCST is a kind of project which motivates and supports students in their research with grants based on nature and scope of the project. Participating in this project not only help students to gain valuable experience but also contribute to addressing real world problems through innovative ideas.

The Practice:

Students who want to participate in KSCST projects need to take support from their Guides and identify relevant research problems based on their interests. Research guides will continuously support and review students work till the end of project final selection. Once the Project proposal is accepted the project will receive funding for 2nd round of project presentation. Once again if the project presentation is successful then required funding will be done by government.

Evidence of Success (As an Example):

In the last few years students from the department of Engineering and management studies were participating in KSCST projects and our students are successfully participating and working on different projects which demonstrate their ability to address real-world problems through innovative solutions. These projects will help our students in enhancing technical skill and also contribute in societal well-being.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required

Most of the research topics taken by students need to gather first hand information for execution which almost work as experiment. Most of the engineering students are poor in communication which is barrier to communicate their ideas and management students are finding it difficult to use technical skills in their project.
